ACTIVITY REDUCED BY MEXICAN PROBLEM

Speculation Also Halted by Supreme Court Decisions in Anti-trust Cases—Few Indications of Material Improvement.

New York, March 12.—The sluggishness of the securities market last week, in fact of happenings, with an important bearing on affairs, testified to the previous anticipatory moves which had been made in speculation. Other events, still awaited, obviously have their part also in restricting eneculative activity. Most influential of these, in stock market estimation, is the Supreme Court decisions in the antitrust cases. The immediate effect of these decisions is, of course, problematical but it is hoped that when they are handed down the thancial market will be made responsive to other factors, which are how held in restraint by the desire to see that question cleared up.

The proportions suddenly assumed by the Mexican problem tended to redirect in military movements had a repassing effect. The reported disposition to limit the activity although the autitoriality explanation of the governments in matter at general tariif revision had the subject.

Further evidence of backward trade activity and of diminished rairoad accarnings had a part in modifying the initiance of the subject.

CENSUS REPORT WILL BE ISSUED MARCH 20

New Orleans, La., March 12.—This week the cotton market will be much concerned over the consus report on cotton ginning, which will be issued on the 20th. This will be the finit kinning report of the season and will count very closely the cotton raised this season. Within probably 100.600 bales and possibly less, it will settle the size of the commercial crop.

The week will be featured by forecasts of the report by private eron reporting bureaus, and these forecasts may cause violent fluctuations. The 20th is a week from Monday and the report will be issued five minutes before trading begins for the week, therefore, the opinion of the market in regard to the figures will have to be discounted this week.

The weather will be of importance. All during last week the belt got drier and drier, mail on in the week several impostant points in Texas were complaining that it, would be impossible for cotton to germinate unless rain fell soon. If the market opens this week with no rath over Sunday, nervous shorts will probably bid prices up on ther seives. A little rain probably will encourage fresh short selling. The market would break sharply

(1) At 12:30 o'clock P. M., the very valuable and eligibly located threestory Brick Store and Dwelling, No. 124 East Broad Street, located at the 1 orthwest corner of Broad and Second Streets, now occupied by C. A. Muir as a shoe store, and fronting about 20 feet.

(2) At 1:30 o'clock P. M., that extremely valuable Store Property, known as Nos. 532 and 534 East Broad Street, situated at the northwest corner of Broad and Sixth Streets, fronting about 29 feet 5 inches, together with the Company as to the larger portion, and the rest of it by Mrs. Teresa Gianotti.

Both of these Broad Street properties are among the best in that attractive retail section of the city, and it can be truthfully said that no property land at Broad and Sixth Streets.

At 4:30 o'clock P. M., we will sell that very desirable vacant lot on the east side of Eighteenth Street, near the mouth of Clay Street. This lot fronts 34 feet 5 inches, and by reason of its proximity to the Chesapeake and
